

1.8K calls

410 people helped

2 in 5
were in crisis but not experiencing suicidality

3 in 5
were experiencing suicidality

68%
Of those with suicidality had a plan in place

68
Lives have been saved from imminent danger

No additional support needed from phonenumber after the initial call

38%

Were stabilised during the call but were identified as not needing additional support at the time.

5%

Were referred to external agencies for support.

2%

Had a place of safety arranged by their counsellor.

61 Check-ins given so far

Additional support needed from crisis phonenumber after the initial call

55%

Entered into a specialist support programme for people experiencing suicidality.

528 specialist support programme sessions provided so far.

19%

Felt supported and chose to leave the programme early.

22%

Completed the programme and didn't need any additional support.

15%

Completed the programme and needed additional support. TASC funded extra sessions.

169 Additional sessions funded so far.